

Scholarship for a Penland School of Crafts' Summer Class In Ceramics for San Diego County High School Art Teachers

2016 CALL FOR APPLICATIONS -- Deadline February 17, 2016

Steve Cook 2015 CASD Recipient

Penland School of Crafts is an international center for craft education dedicated to helping people live creative lives. Located in the Western NC, Penland offers 1-, 2-, and 8-week workshops in books, paper, clay, drawing, glass, iron, metals, painting, photography, printmaking, letterpress, textiles, and wood. Penland welcomes serious students of all levels of experience and backgrounds (minimum age 18). Some workshops are tailored for beginners and some require prior experience; most welcome a range of skill levels. A full list of Penland classes is available at www.penland.org.

The Clay Artists of San Diego Scholarship is a special scholarship for residents of Southern California who teach High School art in both public and private sectors in the San Diego County School System. The recipient will receive full tuition, room, and board for a one or two week summer session in clay at Penland along with a partial traveling stipend. This scholarship is funded annually by the Clay Artists of San Diego, a non-profit 501c3 organization (<http://www.clayartistsofsandiego.org/>).

To Apply go to www.penland.slideroom.com Scholarship applications must be made online, using Slideroom, by midnight on February 17, and must include your letters of reference. Scholarship applicants pay a nonrefundable $50 processing fee. Applicants will be notified by April 1.

NOTE - To apply for the Clay Artists of San Diego Scholarship, select the scholarship type Full Scholarship and check the box I am a High School Art Teacher in San Diego County. Please read the descriptions of all scholarship types and the other special qualifications for each. SELECT ALL THAT APPLY. You may be eligible for additional scholarship awards.

For Questions:

Penland Contacts: Amanda Hollifield, Penland Registrar
registrar@penland.org
828.765.2359 ext. 106

Nancy Kerr, Development Associate, Scholarships
nancykerr@penland.org
828.765.2359 ext. 119

PENLAND SCHOOL OF CRAFTS